Profiles in Motivation Three Student Graduation Research Projects

Tomomi Kanai, Yumi Muto, Asami Nagaosa 群馬県立女子大学

Three graduating seniors will present findings from their graduation research projects, bringing fresh perspectives on teacher and student motivation: What are the types of motivation and is there a relationship to students' TOEIC scores? How can learners maintain motivation after graduating from university? How are elementary teachers' attitudes affected by their motivation? Join us to learn more about these important issues affecting student and instructor motivation.
